PROCEEDS FROM WATSON'S PROPERTY TO BE HELD

Justice Gould has signed an order authorizing United States Marshal Palmer to hold the proceeds of the sale of property of James M. A. Watson, attached in connection with the suit of the District against him to recover $10,152.79. This order, however, does not include the money realized from the sale of Watson's "red devil" automobile. A previous order of the court directed that this fund shall be held by Francis H. Stephens, receiver, until Mrs. Watson's claim of $2,000 against the red devil shall have been adjudicated.

MITCHELL RELEASED BY GEORGIA MAYOR

S. P. Mitchell, the negro president of the National Industrial Council, with headquarters at 503 D Street northwest, who was arrested at Thomasville, Ga., charged with having solicited money for the promotion of Senator Hanna's ex-slave pension bill, was released yesterday afternoon, Mayor Culpepper coming to the conclusion that there was not sufficient evidence to hold him.

POLLY CAN HAVE ALL
CRACKERS SHE LIKES

Her Threatening Talk Frightened a Burglar Into Flight.

Paul Schlatter, of 1216 I Street northeast, is this morning happy that he possesses an intelligent parrot. Schlatter and his family were all sleeping soundly last night when a burglar effected an entrance to the house through a kitchen window. In the dining-room hung the cage of Polly, a remarkable bird, whose conversational powers are exceptional. Polly is a light sleeper, and the noise of the raising of the window awakened her. She pulled her head from under her wing, and in a sleepy voice inquired, "Who's there?" Receiving no reply she then remarked: "Whoever you are, you would better make yourself scarce," a hint which was immediately taken by the intruder. In the meantime the complaints of the sleepy bird aroused the household, who arrived on the scene in time to see the open window and the vanishing form of the burglar. Mr. Schlatter announces that the bird is not for sale.

VETERANS REMEMBER
WALDRON'S MOTHER

John Jacob Astor Command Sends Her Substantial Aid.

Now it is the John Jacob Astor Command of the Spanish War Veterans, with headquarters at the Soldiers' Home, who are moving to express their sympathy for the mother of William Waldron, who recently committed suicide by cutting his throat in a room of a hotel on Pennsylvania Avenue. Yesterday resolutions, accompanied by a $10 bill, were sent to Mrs. Frances Waldron, at her home in the rear of 615 Maryland Avenue southwest. "It is the desire of the members of this command, all of whom were comrades of your son, William Waldron, to express to you in the feeble manner conveyed by words, the heartfelt sympathy felt by us for your bereavement. "Being fully aware that words do not purchase the necessities of life, the bearer of this letter, Comrade Sullivan, has been detailed by us to convey a more substantial sympathy to you. "Again using words, my dear madam, we say be of good heart, as our Supreme Commander does all for the best. "With deep sympathy, the very best of wishes, we beg to remain, "Yours sincerely to command, "The Col. John Jacob Astor Command, No. 136, Spanish War Veterans." Mrs. Waldron expresses her deep appreciation of this testimonial as well as of the special funeral ceremony over her son's remains by the authorities of the Soldiers' Home.

COMRADES IN LIFE,
COMRADES IN DEATH

Cavanaugh and Guiney to Be Buried in Adjoining Graves.

Comrades in life, comrades in death, Aloysius T. Cavanaugh and Michael Francis Guiney will be buried together, with one ceremony and adjoining graves, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. This is indicative of the feelings of the two families, and is the highest proof of their conviction that Cavanaugh was insane when he shot and killed his friend and then himself in St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore.

When the bodies were brought to Washington yesterday on the same train they were taken to the Guiney home, at 65 I Street northwest. There they lie today, side by side, while relatives of slayer and slain mourn in common. Both the wife of Guiney and the mother of Cavanaugh are prostrated by the tragedy. The funeral will be from the house, the Rev. Father Fink, of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, officiating. Interment will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

CONDUCTOR HURT IN COLLISION.

There was a collision at Ninth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue northwest, between an Anacostia car and an Avenue car, in which Conductor R. L. Miley, of the Avenue car, was bruised about the head and body. Miley was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where he received treatment, and then went home.

You Can Get Train to Baltimore

"Every hour on the hour" via Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. week days. Returning from Baltimore in like manner. Also first-class service to Philadelphia and New York.

THE NEWS OF GEORGETOWN

GOOD TEMPLARS ENTERTAIN.

The members of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the State of Virginia were entertained last night at Good Templar Hall, on the Brookville Road, Tenleytown, by the members of Silver Star Lodge, No. 20, I. O. G. T. Several of the members of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of the District of Columbia, were present, as well as about fifty members of the various Washington Good Templar lodges. Addresses were made by the officers of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, officers of the visiting lodges, and of the local lodge. Grand Chief Templar of the District of Columbia, Sylvester W. Russell, made an eloquent address. An excellent musical and literary entertainment was one of the features of the evening, which was well received by the one hundred and fifty Good Templars present. The program was arranged by a special committee, appointed some time ago, by the members of Silver Star Lodge.

FUNERAL OF MR. JACKSON.

The funeral of John H. Jackson, who died early yesterday morning took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Services were conducted at Oak Hill Chapel by the Rev. Dr. Frank H. Haveren, pastor of the Dumbarton Avenue, M. E. Church, of Georgetown. The interment was made at Oak Hill Cemetery.

Deceased was the son of the late William and Rebecca Jackson, and was a lifelong resident of Georgetown. The demise occurred at the home of his sister, Mrs. Catherine R. Graves, 2017 P Street northwest. Mr. Jackson was a volunteer in the Federal Army in the civil war, being a member of Company A, First Battalion.

MOUNT TABORS WIN EASILY.

The Mount Tabor baseball team resumed its old form of playing yesterday afternoon on the Olympic grounds, at the intersection of Thirty-second and Thirty-fifth Streets northwest, in the game with the Riverside nine, the former winning by the score of 13 to 5. Buscher pitched for the local nine, while Shirlo twirled for the Riverside team. Mr. Schaeffer umpired the game.

LABOR DAY BASEBALL.

On Labor Day two baseball games will be played on the Georgetown University campus, one in the morning at 10:30 and one in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be turned into the treasury of the Georgetown University Hospital. In the morning the Olympics and the Rock Creek Stars will be the contesting teams, while in the afternoon the Dumbartons and the Rock Creek Stars will battle for the supremacy of the Northwest. Both games are expected to be close and exciting. The Rock Creek Stars defeated the Dumbarton team about two weeks ago on the college campus by the score of 7 to 5, and the latter expects to turn the trick on Monday.

TRANSFER OF AUGUR HOUSE.

The deed was placed on record yesterday, whereby the C. C. Augur property at the southeast corner of Twenty-eighth and Dumbarton Avenue northwest, was transferred to George W. Emerson. The property is described as lot 142, and parts of lots 44, 45, 143, and 152, square 1236. General Augur resided in this house for a number of years.
